

Prayer of a companion to a person who has been abused

Loving God, give me what I need for this journey with N.
Come and help me with your compassion and your strength.
When she needs to speak,
help me to listen carefully,
and to wait patiently when she cannot find the words.
Help me to recognize N's feelings,
to understand my own,
and not to add my worries to the burden she is carrying.
Give me courage for the days ahead, wisdom to support N in her choices,
faith to pray for her throughout her journey,
and grace to persevere
when people and processes move slowly,
and pain is prolonged.
Show me how to love the Church for which Christ died, yet which has become a place of abuse and pain and grief.
Protect us with your power,
and bring us to healing and peace,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for a companion of a person who has been abused

God of grace,
come and help M as he walks with N in her search for healing.
When emotions run high,
give understanding, and the awareness of your presence.
When time drags or presses,
give perseverance, and the energy to respond to urgent need.
When the burden of care is heavy, give the strength of Christ, and courage to take the next step.
When choices must be made, give insight, and your wisdom to shape every decision.
When pain threatens to overwhelm faith,
give refreshment in prayer, and your strong Spirit, through our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
