SparkLit nurtures emerging Christian publishers in difficult places

There has never been a Christian publisher in Laos or Timor Leste. SparkLit is supporting publishing initiatives in Vientiane and Dili and has helped local Christians publish their first books. SparkLit currently nurtures emerging Christian publishers in Argentina, Cambodia, Central Asia, China, Egypt, Kenya, Laos, Mongolia, Nepal, Pakistan, Peru, South Sudan, Timor Leste and Turkey. We direct funds, expertise and energy where Christian writing is needed most. We encourage local initiatives and promote sustainable enterprises.

SparkLit equips publishing professionals

We invest in the training and development of promising Christian writers, editors, designers and booksellers. We embrace strategic opportunities and love discovering hidden talent. During the last twelve months, SparkLit has delivered online training and encouragement to Christian publishing professionals in Latin America, Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

2020 Australian Christian Book of the Year puts Christianity on trial

For the Love of God: How the Church is Better and Worse than You Ever Thought by Natasha Moore and published by the Centre for Public Christianity is the 2020 Australian Christian Book of the Year. The award was accepted by Natasha during the SparkLit online awards event on Thursday evening 13 August 2020.

Daniel Li from Melbourne won the 2020 Young Australian Christian Writer Award with his gentle but confronting manuscript exploring the loneliness of leadership, Being Mulaney.

Phoebe Worseldine from Gippsland won the 2020 Australian Christian Teen Writer Award for her story of fear, trust and hope in a devastating bushfire, Through Smoke and Flames.

With these awards SparkLit celebrates and encourages the creativity and enterprise of Australian Christian writers and publishers.

SparkLit supplies books where resources are scarce

SparkLit makes Christian books available, accessible and affordable where commitment is strong but support and resources are scarce. SparkLit is providing theological texts and essential reference works to students and pastors in Cambodia, China, DR Congo, Ethiopia, Indonesia, Kenya, Myanmar, Nigeria, Papua New Guinea, the Philippines and Tanzania. During the pandemic, digital theological libraries are being used by students confined to their homes or unable to visit a college library.
