

Profile for Barry Newman:

Qualifications: BSc (Hons. 1), MSc, PhD, BA (Hons. 1) – all, University of Sydney.

The research in the three Science degrees was in organic chemistry. The research in the Arts degree was in philosophy of education.

Worked in the chemical industry for five years, Travelling Graduate for AFES for 1 year, taught at Sydney Grammar School for 5 years being master in charge of physics and lectured at the University of New South Wales for 24 years in science education as a senior lecturer, then Head of the School of Teacher Education, then Director of the Board of Studies in Professional Studies.

Worked at the University of Notre Dame (USA) in chemical research, the University of Glasgow (Scotland) in chemical education research, the University of Waikato (N.Z.) in science education research and the University of Boston (USA) attached to the Centre for History and Philosophy of Science.

Memberships over the years include: Sigma Xi Scientific Society, Scripture Union Council, Moore Theological College Council and Board, New University Colleges Council, Sydney Standing Committee, Sydney and General Synods of the Anglican Church, Christ Church St Ives Anglican Church.

Over time have had the privilege of teaching PTC elements, speaking evangelistically and teaching at youth and adult camps, conferences and services involving Anglican and other denominations.

Married to Laurie. We have 5 daughters, 7 granddaughters and 5 grandsons.