

Catherine Rich GS18 profile

I attend Narellan Anglican Church where I have been a member since 1996. I have previously served as Warden and am currently a Synod Representative for my parish.

I also serve on the Macarthur Anglican School Council since 2009. I have been Secretary of Council since 2010 and Chair of its Governance and Risk Committee since 2011.

I have worked for the Diocese of Sydney since 1994. I have been the Deputy Diocesan Registrar since 1997 and Provincial Registrar for New South Wales since 2021.

As part of my role as Deputy Diocesan Registrar, I am responsible for the licensing of those in ministry, recording of parish appointments, publication of the Diocesan Year Book and Secretary of the Nomination Board and the Diocesan Retirements Board.

Within the Province of New South Wales, I am currently a member of the Provincial Synod Finance Committee since 2003 and in 2021 was appointed as Provincial Registrar and Secretary of the Provincial Synod Standing Committee.

I enjoy baking, reading, walking and generally being outdoors.

I am married to James.
