

Profile of Dr David Phillips – Adelaide Diocese

Current Leadership & Ministry Positions

- Tea Tree Gully Anglican Church, Adelaide, Member (since 1972)
- Synod, Anglican Diocese of Adelaide, Member (since 1974)
- Diocesan Council, Anglican Diocese of Adelaide, Member (1990-1992 & since 2019)
- General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia, Representative (1992 & 2022)

Previous Leadership & Ministry Positions

- Tea Tree Gully Anglican Church, Adelaide
  - youth group leader,
  - men's group leader,
  - home group leader,
  - member of Parish Council,
  - Lay Assistant,
  - Lay Reader
  - Lay Preacher
- Defence Science and Technology Group, Department of Defence
  - Principal Research Scientist – research on laser hydrography and radar systems, and management of defence research programs
- FamilyVoice Australia – a Christian charity addressing public policy issues relating to family, faith and freedom
  - Founder and former Chief Executive

Major Academic Qualifications

- Bachelor of Science, University of Sydney
- Master of Science, University of New England,
- Doctor of Philosophy, University of New England,
- Associate of Theology, Australian College of Theology

Personal

- Married with four adult children and 15 grandchildren, who are all involved in Anglican and other Christian churches in different ways.
- I enjoy reading about history, current affairs and current scientific research; listening to classical music; live theatre; and overseas travel (before Covid).