Profile:

Passionate about teaching God's Word and helping others to know and serve God. Kerrie has studied education and theology. Before beginning the ministry of raising a family, she worked for the Department of Education and at Tyndale Christian School. Kerrie has a wide variety of experience to draw from: Curriculum Writer for the Anglican Education Commission; Families Minister at Yagoona Anglican; Lecturer and Dean of Students for Youthworks College; Ministry Support Advisor for the Wollongong Region; Chaplain for the Professional Standards Unit for the Diocese of Sydney and Manager of Church Engagement with Anglican Deaconess Ministries raising up women into Community Chaplaincy. Kerrie and her husband Graham serve with the people at Church of the Good Shepherd, Greenacre, an Anglican Church in south-western Sydney. When she's not supporting other ministries, Kerrie loves spending time with her children and their ever-increasing families, passing on God's love to this new generation with great joy
