About

- live and work on the lands of the Wurundjeri and Bunurong peoples of the Kulin nations
- cultural historian of the European Renaissance and Reformation
- write and speak regularly on the past and future of Anglicanism
- passionate about discerning the future shape of theological education and ministerial formation in this land, especially through supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander theologians
- recreations include bushwalking, genealogy, art, music
- sing choral evensong as often as possible

At this General Synod I hope to ...

- contribute to a safer and more inclusive church and society
- meet and learn from members from rural and regional Australia
- make one new friend
- build respect for the faithful witness of LGBTI Christians
- write an analysis of the current state of the Anglican Church of Australia
