

The Very Rev'd Richard Humphrey, BSc (Arch), B Div (Hons), Dip Min, GAICD

Richard has been the Dean of Hobart for 13 years as the Cathedral proclaims Jesus as Lord, to build a community of living faith, profound hope and practical love.

Raised in Hobart, Richard studied Architecture at Sydney University before working in London in architectural computing. On the side he worked as a road manager for a Christian rock band. He joined his wife Georgina in studying theology at Moorlands Bible College in Dorset (UK). He returned to Sydney to study for Anglican Ministry at Moore College. After College he was an assistant at St. Martin's, Killara, and Rector of St. Andrew's, Cronulla.

He has proven skills in preaching, liturgy and community building.

Richard has served on General Synod since 2010, is a member of the National Liturgical Commission, a graduate member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and serves on two Anglican School boards.

