

RICHARD TRELOAR – House of Bishops | Gippsland

Ordained Ministries

- Curacies
 - St Peter's, Ballarat (1990-92)
 - Christ Church, Warrnambool (1992-93)
- Rector
 - Parish of Skipton (4 centres), Diocese of Ballarat (1993-97)
- Associate Priest
 - All Saints', East St Kilda (1997-98)
- Associate Chaplain
 - Trinity College, The University of Melbourne (1998-2001)
- Stewart Lecturer in Theology
 - Trinity College Theological School (1998-2007)
- Chaplain
 - Trinity College, The University of Melbourne (2003-2007)
- Vicar
 - Christ Church, South Yarra (2007-2018)
- President/Board Chair
 - Christ Church Grammar School (2007-2018)
- Bishop
 - Diocese of Gippsland (from 2018)

Wider Church Involvements

- Ballarat Deanery Youth Chaplain (1994-1996)
- Faith and Order Standing Commission, World Council of Churches (2001-2014)
- Council member, Melbourne Grammar School (2008-2014)
- Examining Chaplain, Diocese of Melbourne (2008-2011)
- President, Australian Church Union (2009-2011)
- Liturgy Commission, General Synod (2012 -)
- Adjunct Faculty member, Trinity College Theological School (2013-2017)
- Board member, Brotherhood of St Laurence (2014-2016)
- Board member, Trinity College, The University of Melbourne (2019 -)
- Chair, Theological School Committee, Trinity College (2022 -)

Research and writing interests

- PhD in Hebrew biblical narrative (Monash University, 2003; published by ATF in 2008)
- Masters (by thesis) on theology and postmodernity (MCD, 1993)
- contributor to edited volumes and local and international refereed journals, mostly in the area of biblical interpretation
- columnist for Eureka Street on issues to do with faith and popular culture (1998-2007)

Personal

- Richard is married to Dr Leanne Habeeb, an Organisational Psychologist, and they have two young children, Rachel and Nicholas, who share Richard's irrational allegiance to the Carlton Football Club.