
VEN. STEPHEN CARNABY

DIOCESE OF TASMANIA

stephen.carnaby@anglicantas.org.au

0417 343710

PERSONAL

Stephen is married to Joanne and they have two young adult children

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor of Economics

Bachelor of Ministries

MA (Theology)

Graduate – Australian Institute of Company Directors

Cert IV in Christian Coaching

Stephen is currently undertaking a Doctor of Ministry degree, researching church revitalisations in a rural and regional Diocese.

CURRENT MINISTRIES

DIRECTOR OF MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT

Overseeing clergy and lay training

Supporting 15 parishes going through revitalisation

Overseeing youth and childrens' and rural ministry staff

CHAIR – ANGLICARE TASMANIA

VARIOUS DIOCESAN COMMITTEES

OTHER MINISTRY EXPERIENCE

PARISHES

Stephen spent 18 years in parish ministry across different sized places in Tasmania as an Assistant Minister or Rector, including Burnie, BayWest and Bellerive. His experience included church revitalisations, starting new services, youth and children's ministry, university ministry, training of leaders, oversight of ministry staff, and general pastoral ministry.

DIOCESAN

Stephen was the Bishop's Media Officer for 15 years. He has served on Diocesan committees and boards including Diocesan Council, Finance Committee, Appointments Committee, CMS Tasmania candidate interviewer, Nomination Committees, Anglican Health and Welfare, Clarendon Children's Foundation

BIO

Stephen was born in Tasmania and had the blessing of growing up in an Anglican ministry family there. As a young adult, he recommitted his life to serving Jesus, and after studying economics and working for a few years in public administration, he was rather surprised to be called to serve God as an ordained minister. Together with his family, this has been a joyful experience, and he has been delighted to see God bringing new life into the Tasmanian church over the past few decades.