

Tim Reid is the General Manager and Registrar of the Anglican Church Southern Queensland and worships at Christ Church, St Lucia. He has had a long involvement in the Anglican Church from early youth ministry days to Synods, Diocesan Council and his present position which provides executive leadership across all Diocesan operations. Tim has degrees in law and commerce.