

William Barwick, lay representative, Diocese of Riverina

Academic:

BA (History, Politics double major), DipEd (UNSW)
MLitt in in Australian history (UNE)
MEd in Educational leadership (CSU)
GradDipArts in History Education (Monash University)
Bishop's Certificate (St. Francis Theological College, Brisbane)
Certificate in Genealogy (SAG)

Teaching career:

English and Modern History teaching Inverell High, Wade High, Yanco Agricultural High
Head Teacher, English and History, Yanco Agricultural High School
Deputy Principal, Coleambally Central School; retired from teaching in this role

Community roles:

Graduate member of the UNSW University Council, 1975 - 1977
Secretary of the Old Yanconians' Union Inc. since 1983 and a co-editor of its journal, The Yanco Echo, since 1982
YAHS School Council (P&C) Secretary, 1980-1982
Company Secretary, YAHS Old Yanconians' Foundation, a limited company supporting the education of students and promotion of agriculture at Yanco Agricultural High School
Member, NSW Legacy

Leeton Roxy Community Theatre Management Committee since 1983; Secretary, 1983 - 2005
Shire appointed representative, Roxy Redevelopment Committee, 2019-2021
Appears in "Hidden Gems" series, ABC iView, featuring the Leeton Roxy Community Theatre Assessor, Leeton JumpStart Community Assistance Fund
Vice President and Secretary of the Leeton Family and Local History Society
Marriage Celebrant
Justice of the Peace (NSW)
Appointed a Life Fellow of New College, UNSW, in 2012

Theses and publications:

Thesis on the History of the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Areas between 1884 and 1918
Contributor to Reaching Back, a published family history (2011)
Chapter contributor to Something Borrowed, Something Blue, a history of New College at UNSW (2019)
Currently completing centenary history of Yanco Agricultural High School, 1922-2022

Anglican Church roles:

Baptised and confirmed at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Leeton, Riverina Diocese
At university, worshipped at St. James King Street, Sydney
Secretary, St. Peter's Anglican Church Parish Council, Leeton since early 1990s
St. Peter's Rector's Warden or People's Warden on several occasions
Riverina Diocesan Education Committee, 1990s
Board member, St Martin's Anglican College (CSU Wagga) since 2014 as one of four appointed Riverina Diocese representatives
Synod representative, Riverina Diocesan Council (since 2012), Diocesan Trust (since 2015)
Member, Bishop's Election Committee
Lay member, St. Alban's Cathedral Chapter, 2014 - 2016
First involvement with General Synod as lay representative, Diocese of Riverina, 2022