

Audrey Mills - Profile for General Synod 2022

I worship at St David's Cathedral in Hobart with my husband. I chair the Chapter of the Cathedral and the Property committee.

I am also a member of the Tasmanian diocese's professional standards committee and am a former chancellor of the diocese.

I have been a member of General Synod and its Standing Committee since 2004 and am also a member of the Safe Ministry Commission, previously known as the Professional Standards Commission since 2004. I currently chair the Standing Committee's nomination committee and was Deputy Chair of Committees at the last two General Synods.

I practise as a lawyer in Hobart at Dobson Mitchell Allport Lawyers where I am a director. My area of practice is civil dispute resolution appearing in tribunals, the Coroners, Supreme and Federal Courts and Royal Commissions and representing clients in mediations.

I am a board member of a number of not- for- profit organisations including Glenview Community Services providing aged care services, MyState Community Foundation Inc, a charitable trust and the Sexual Assault Support Service. I am a former president of Australian Women Lawyers and was a founding member.
