

The Reverend Dr Elizabeth J Smith AM

Diocese of Perth

Member of the Liturgy Commission

As well as having long-term suburban parish leadership experience in the Diocese of Melbourne to 2008, I served for seven years as Mission Development Coordinator in Perth before taking up my present role as Mission Priest in the parish of The Goldfields, based in Kalgoorlie, in 2015. I recognise the changing contexts for mission and the need for new strategies and styles in leadership, both lay and ordained. 'Church as we know it' may be passing away, as the inherited narratives and familiar vocabulary lose their currency, yet I am confident that the Spirit is finding new ways for us to live, worship and bear witness together. I have a particular interest in the ways our Anglican liturgical resources, from BCP to APBA and beyond, shape our faith and enable our mission.
