

General Synod 18 Member profile: Greg Anderson

Greg is the sixth bishop of the Northern Territory, consecrated and installed in Darwin in November 2014. He is married to Annette, and they have four children and three grandchildren. They love living in Darwin. Greg first lived in the Territory in 1986-87.

Previous ministries

- CMS missionary Northern Territory, including teaching at Nungalinga College Darwin and being Diocesan Aboriginal Ministry Development Officer
- Head of the Department of Mission, Moore Theological College

Education

- BA (Hons: Psychology and Music), University of Sydney
- PhD (Aboriginal music), University of Sydney
- BTh, Australian College of Theology/Moore Theological College
- MProfessional Education and Training, Deakin University
- MA (Theol), Moore Theological College

Other interests

- Languages
- Cryptic crosswords
- Gardening
- Music