Profile:

I have been a member of St John's Asquith/Mt Colah/Mt Kuring Gai in Sydney's northern region since 2015. I am a volunteer Sunday School teacher and member of the music team. I am a Synod Rep for my church and serve on the Standing Committee.

I am a Senior Safe Ministry Trainer for the Sydney Diocese, and I have a passion for seeing kids know about Christ, make a decision to follow Him and grow to be more like Him. I have worked as a Children's Minister from 2002 to 2015 after graduating with a Dip Theol from Youthworks College and enjoy using puppets and creative methods to preach the Gospel.

I currently work for a private Christian University as a Clinical Nurse Educator, casual academic, clinical lab tutor and clinical facilitator (since 2004), which means I get to interact and work with both Australian and International student, as well as working as an RN in various hospitals since my graduation.
