

Personal profile – Peter Jarvis

I am a lay member of this General Synod and have been a representative of the Diocese of Ballarat since 2014.

- Education: Bachelor Management Deakin University with a major in accounting, completed in 2007.
- Currently studying for personal interest, a Graduate Diploma in Divinity through Ridley College.
- Work experience: Registrar and Business Manager, Diocese of Ballarat since 2012
- Deputy Registrar, Diocese of Adelaide 2008 -2012
- Australian and New Zealand Banking Group for 26 years prior to the above across a range of Branch and Corporate Banking roles.
- Parish involvement: Buninyong Anglican Church as Lay reader, Treasurer, and congregational member.
- Skills: Financial management including the analysis of financial reports and engagement with of investment advice.
- Governance having been the Board Secretary and Public Officer of the Ballarat Anglican Diocesan Corporation since 2015. I have also undertaken training with the Governance Institute of Australia.
- Regarding a nomination to the Board of the Long Service Leave Fund, I would bring to the role fourteen-years' experience in working with the fund on behalf of clergy, the Diocese and Parishes.