

Simon Roberts – House of Clergy, Diocese of North West Australia

Simon is minister-in-charge at Exmouth-Onslow Anglican Church and Archdeacon to the Pilbara. Simon is married to Alison and has two adult daughters.

Academic and Professional Qualifications

Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Company Directors Course, 2016.

Master of Arts in Theology (Merit) 2010, Moore Theological College.

Bachelor of Theology (Honours 2A) 2003, Australian College of Theology in association with Moore Theological College.

Diploma of Ministry 2003, Moore Theological College.

Bachelor of Commerce (Merit) 1995, University of New South Wales, majoring in Marketing and Finance.

Ministry Experience

Archdeacon to the Pilbara, October 2020 to present

Minister-in-charge, Parish of Exmouth-Onslow, April 2020 to present

Rector, St Mark's Anglican Church Malabar, February 2011 to March 2020

Assistant Minister, St George North Anglican Church, 2006 to 2008 (part time) and July 2008 to January 2011 (full time)

Multimedia Editor, Matthias Media, January 2003 to June 2008

Other Governance and Professional Experience

Diocesan Council, North West Australia, October 2020 to present

Chairman of St Catherine's School, Waverley, December 2013 to February 2020

Council Member of St Catherine's School, Waverley, November 2011 to February 2020

SAP Consultant, Price Waterhouse Coopers, 1996 to 1999

Change Management Consultant, Anderson Consulting, 1994 to 1996

Member of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia since 2012